

Clauses Worksheet

Directions: For each of the following sentences underline the subject and circle the predicate (or highlight them different colors). Then, on the line identify if the sentence is an Independent Clause (IC), dependent clause (DC), or both (B).

1. _____ The dog was in the yard
2. _____ I cannot wait until my next trip to New York City!
3. _____ You need to
4. _____ Need to finish your homework on time.
5. _____ There is nothing else to be done
6. _____ R2D2 is from Star Wars, which is her favorite movie.
7. _____ Ana and Leah worked together on their math project.
8. _____ Louisa May Alcott wrote Little Women
9. _____ Please take your time on the test.
10. _____ After all of this, we will be okay.

Clauses Worksheet Answer Key

Directions: For each of the following sentences underline the subject and circle the predicate (or highlight them different colors). Then, on the line identify if the sentence is an Independent Clause (IC), dependent clause (DC), or both (B).

1. DC The dog was in the yard (missing punctuation)
2. IC I cannot wait until my next trip to New York City!
3. DC You need to (missing complete thought and punctuation)
4. DC Need to finish your homework on time. (missing subject)
5. DC There is nothing else to be done - implied you (missing punctuation)
6. B R2D2 is from Star Wars, which is her favorite movie.
7. IC Ana and Leah worked together on their math project.
8. DC Louisa May Alcott wrote Little Women (missing punctuation)
9. IC Please take your time on the test. - implied you
10. B After all of this, we will be okay.